

Position Advertisement

The Baptist History and Heritage Society has an opening for the position of Executive-Director. The qualified applicant will meet or exceed the following qualifications:

- *Education and Experience: A Ph.D. (or equivalent) in Baptist (or related discipline) studies with experience and publications in the area of Baptist history and heritage
- *A Baptist with a strong record of active participation in local churches
- *Demonstrated fund raising skills as well as other administrative experience
- *Strong commitment to the goals of the Baptist History and Heritage Society
- *An effective communicator through both oral and written mediums
- *Leadership skills that include providing vision for the future

Applications (CV that includes references), Nominations, or Inquiries are now being accepted and should be sent to Dr. Doug Weaver, Chair of the BHH Executive-Director Search Committee: (Doug_Weaver@baylor.edu) or (Dr. Doug Weaver, Chair, Search Committee for the BHH Executive-Director, Baylor University, Department of Religion, One Bear Place # 97294, Waco, TX 76798). The search committee will accept relevant materials until the position has been filled.